Boothbay Harbor

COVER

The same scenic harbor that made Boothbay Harbor a tourist trap continues to charm in spite of the great numbers of people who jam its streets. This beautiful protected inlet is one of the most intensely utilized on the coast of Maine. Once a working harbor for lobstermen and schooners, the same space is now an anchorage for as varied a selection of pleasure craft as you will find anywhere. The excursion boats line the wharves making trips to nearby islands as well as offshore islands

such as Monhegan. The famous Maine coastal schooners are still in evidence but now as pleasure boats full of vacationing visitors. They are still a marvelous sight with white sails against the blue of the Maine sky and water. One of the best features of this harbor is the walkway on wooden pilings which connects the opposing shores right through the middle. Not only is it a convenient short-cut but also is a perfect place to enjoy water views and take photos of the docks and shore.

During the months of summer, Boothbay is alive with people who swarm over its narrow streets to patronize the many shops and restaurants and board the many boats bound for points up and down the coast. A popular trip is one up the coast to the next peninsula where the lighthouse stands sentinel atop the great cliff at Pemaquid Point. If the surf is active this is one of the great sights on the whole east coast.

If the sight of the sea and its coast and craft are what pleases you, then Boothbay Harbor is sure to rank high on your list. The rocky islands rise out of the water crowned by tall dark green pines. It is a sight that thrills anyone who loves the coast. Many do and many of these smaller islands are inhabited by summer people who return year after year to a summer calm that grows ever rarer in a complex world of our own making.

Pre-Meeting Strategy

FRIDAY, JUNE 23, 1989 by Virginia Morgan

Prior to the special town meeting, Selectmen held a strategy session noting the state aid will be higher than expected. Chairman Bernard F. Talty noted their forecasting was made before the May 1st annual town meeting and based on estimates made in March on fiscal 1989's estimated receipts. Last year's were $843,000; and, as of May 31, "we have received $946,000 in estimated receipts."

He also said the car excise taxes and boat excise taxes are "way up" for estimated receipts. Boat taxes are up because boat owners must show proof of paid excise taxes before registering for a mooring. "We have the authority to collect boat excise taxes for the past three years if the boat was moored in Mattapoisett Harbor."

Additionally, "We have knocked about 440,000 from the highway department's tarring streets and roads account; this leaves $40,000 balance in the account for fiscal 1990."

Selectmen felt the voters should know the new police station is designed for the future and not just for today. "We had a five percent contingency fund (the usual is 10 percent) and we did not use it all", said the Chairman. The construction cost came in $19,000 under the contract figure, he added.

8 p.m. to go to Old Hammondtown School and VOTE on the town government Proposition 2½ override question.

"Spread the word", to get out and vote on July 11 on the $373,538.50 override to cover the operation of the town government was the final comment from Town Moderator R. William Blasdale to the 292 voters at the June 27th Special Town Meeting at Old Rochester Regional High School.

With a scattering of no votes, the majority of town meeting voters approved the $373,538.50 override -- $75,000 less than the original request at the May 1st annual town meeting because more than expected will be coming from state aid. Although this $75,000 is more than expected, it still isn't as much as the Board of Selectmen had hoped for based on fiscal 1989's aid.

When the special town meeting opened at 7:30 p.m. Selectmen Chairman Bernard F. Talty explained the present condition of the town's operational budget and what problems the departments will have to face in cutting their budgets if the override fails on July 11th.

If the override passes on July 11th, the special town meeting will resume on July 12th at 7:30 p.m. at ORR High School to continue the postponed articles from the June 7th special town meeting warrant. These were postponed until the Selectmen had a handle on where the town budget

Police Chief James F. Moran explained the funds are from the salary account where more part time workers reduced overtime costs and less sick days were used than the previous years. These funds have to be spent before July 1 or they revert to the Free Cash to be certified for the 1991 budget.

Chairman Talty explained the flyers distributed to voters and went down the list describing the department budgets and where possible cuts could be made. He stressed, "We (the Selectmen) cannot reduce the budget. You, the town meeting voters, control the budget. Selectmen can focus on how the cuts will affect the operation of town government.

"There's no doubt the cuts will affect the quality of life in this town. The savings will not be worth the services we provide", Chairman Talty said.

A handout sheet from the Finance Committee showed that the $373,538.50 override would cost taxpayers 69 cents per thousand or $69. per $100,000 house. The handout also explained if the override fails, the payment of unemployment compensation to laid-off employees would be devastating to the town's finances.

"As of July 1 we are level funding wages," said the Chairman. "If you don't make cuts immediately, we would be building $8,000 per week deficit and adding to the budget override figure," he added.

Finance Committee Chairman Elizabeth Kunz noted as a town body "you can talk to people and get them out to vote. Selectmen cannot spend town funds to urge any special department budgets be cut or kept."

In a response to this remark, Peter Kortright asked the voters to join him in a rally to plan strategy on how to get people out to vote. A rally was planned for 7 p.m. June 29th at the town beach, the site of one of the proposed cuts.

Among the suggestions for cuts, Chairman Talty said the Board of Health will have plans later if one is needed to be put into effect for trash collection; the library could lose accreditation if library hours are decreased; shellfishing could go on three day weeks and increase fees or operate on its own income from fees.

In response to Beatrice Ingram's question , why won't the beach be open if the budget passes on July 11, Town Counsel

MATTAPOISETT SELECTMEN'S MEETING
JUNE 26, 1989 - by Virginia Morgan

Elizabeth Hammack-Leidhold of 7 Driscoll Lane and Daniel J. Bungert of 2 Beechwood Road were appointed by the Board of Selectmen to fill two vacancies on the Conservation Commission. Ms. Hammack-Leidhold presently works as an independent sub-contractor providing services as Wetland Scientist and Environmental Analyst, She is a graduate of the University of Connecticut, Storrs and received a B.S. in Renewable Natural Resources. When interviewed by Selectmen Bernard F. Talty, Chairman, William F. Hubbard and John N. DeCosta, she said it would be a great challenge working with the Commission and that they have a lot of wetland problems. "We have a lot of prime real estate but we must protect our water source. I have experience in soils, hydrology and other aspects of wetlands and can speak to developers on their level." She felt the extent of a buffer zone depends on the project; it could hold passive recreation, but not a septic system.

Mr. Bungert has worked for the past three years with his father in the building industry. He said he felt the responsibility of the Conservation Commission is to monitor town growth and deal with the problems with equity and fairness and not to change dramatically or it would be unfair. "I like to be involved and would like to see the town grow consistent. I may be viewed bias because I am in the building business but fairness is what we should be following." When asked about converting summer homes to year-round, Mr. Bungert said, as an example, "no way should the lots at Crescent Beach handle year-round living. We should plan to get sewer in other areas in town besides the village." He admitted to being new at this Conservation Commission work but said it will be a learning process to help shape the growth of "our town where I grew up".

The names of two other candidates, Martha Peterson and William L. Oliver III, will be placed on file. Another candidate, Shellfish Constable Brian Nunes, withdrew his application.

In other business Selectmen:

VOTED to continue the same policy with the Ice Cream Slip situated at the wharf by Shipyard Park and not allow the building to remain overnight. The new owner, Dana Tripp, had made the request. Selectmen agreed the building could be vandalized and that the same decision was given to two previous owners.

quist of the architectural firm of Brown and Lindquist Inc., who designed the new police station to sign off the building to the town after several minor changes have been made. Selectman Hubbard, who also served as Clerk of the Works for the station on a volunteer basis, noted there were some corrections in the lighting system that needed attention. Selectmen agreed they wanted to get everything paid for as soon as possible.

Board members told the architects they were quite pleased with the comments heard about the open house and that they estimated over 500 people packed the station from 1 until after 4 p.m. on Saturday, June 24th.

AGREED there would be no parking tickets issued during events taking place on the wharf, such as square dances and band concerts.

RECEIVED A LETTER from Katherine L. Kozicki, Principal of Center school, thanking the Board of Selectmen for the gift of a large American flag, which was presented to her by Selectman DeCosta at the school's annual Flag Day ceremony on June 14th.

Mrs. Kozicki noted the twofold purpose for the presentation of this flag is to honor the traditional Flag Day ceremony at Center School and to express kind sentiments to her upon her retirement from Center School. As requested by the Selectmen, this flag will be flown daily over Center School.

The renewal also gives permission to purchase, take and relay seed and/or adult shellfish (quahogs) from the clean waters of the hatchery of Aquacultural Research Corp., Chapin Beach Road, Dennis to the clean waters of the permit holder's grant off west Mattapoisett Neck. The permit allows no more than 50,000 seed quahogs shall be transplanted; the dates of the transplant shall be June 20, 1989 to July 30, 1989, inclusive. The permit does not authorize the sale of seed shellfish or other disposition of seed by the permit holder to other individuals or companies.

NO SELECTMEN'S MEETING JULY 4

Because of the July 4th holiday there was no Board of Selectmen's meeting that week. The next meeting will be Tuesday, July 11th, at 7 p.m. At that time the election results of the override question on the town operational budget will be known, and the Selectmen can make plans for either resuming services or cutting department budgets.

Pep Rallies to Spur Voting

JUNE 28 and JULY 6, 1989
by VIRGINIA MORGAN

A group of about 40 concerned voters met at the Mattapoisett Town Beach Thursday, June 29th, to listen to ideas on how to get people out to vote on July 11th on the special election to override Proposition 2½. The amount of $373,538.50 is being sought to cover the operation of town government.

Peter Kortright, who initiated the idea for an ad-hoc committee for this purpose, proposed it at the special town meeting on June 27th. At that meeting the override was approved but still needs town election approval.

Mr. Kortright agreed to serve as chairman of the ad-hoc committee and Mr. John Gannon agreed to serve as treasurer. Town Administrator Lois K. Ennis, who also serves as Town Clerk, told the group if money is raised and spent for the purpose of getting people out to vote, certain papers must be taken out and filed with the Town Clerk's office.

A group of concerned voters will distribute handouts, display posters, hold signs prior to and on election day, as well as make phone calls. Of the approximately 20 persons attending, all were enthusiastically willing to help.

Selectmen Chairman Bernard F. Talty explained where in the past three years tax increases have gone to other than the budget. "We have spent $1.800 million not counting the police station on such items as the well site, $86,000; corrosion control facility, $120,000; Old Hammondtown School roof, $125,000; fire pumper, $160,000; fire truck, $140,000; $75,000 front end loader; plus sums for asbestos removal at the schools and two boilers at Center

School; $14,000 water department truck, $460,000 sewer expansion; sums to paint both elementary schools and replace windows.

Mr. Talty said the local school committee budget has gone up 39 percent in three years. The town's big purchases have been made for the present time. At the start of Proposition 2½ the town didn't buy anything over what 2½ allowed and the state helped out, but now big items that have been held over each year are needed and there is no money from the state. This spells trouble, the Chairman added.

A question that has been raised by townspeople was answered in the handout on the July 6th evening. "How did they find the money for the two police cruisers at the last special town meeting?" Mr. Kortright said he researched the answer with the Town Accountant and the Police Chief. The answer: The Police Chief has managed to save some $20,000 on overtime expenses budgeted for the last fiscal year (1989) and, due primarily to citizen pressure (petition), an article was placed on the warrant to transfer some of that unexpended balance to another line item for the purchase of police cruisers. That expense was for last fiscal year and only impacted funds available for this fiscal year in that if the transfer had not been approved, those funds would have eventually gone into "free cash" which could have been spent either on this fiscal year's budget (1990) in the Fall, or on the next fiscal year budget (1991) at the annual town meeting in late spring 1990.

Other information given included: if the budget isn't passed, we won't have a budget until late August at the earliest. This delay will mean that the beach closing will become a non-issue, the season will be over. Furthermore, several unions are waiting on the override question to be decided before concluding new contracts and further delay could, and Mr. Kortright stressed "could", result in possible strikes.

A Principle Endangered - DCJ

With every election Mattapoisett is at a crossroad. If the people of the town really want to abandon the protection of Proposition 2½ nothing will be easier. Politicians hate it. Nothing is more trying or difficult than trying to live within an income that melts with an ever-increasing inflation. Every head of a household is aware of that fact. Government just has never been designed to wrestle with the problem. Our government, on every level, is headed by people who want to please the electorate. As has been overwhelmingly demonstrated, spending more and more money pleases people if they can be convinced that someone else is paying the major share of the bill. This very fact had led to the enormous decline in the value of the dollar - the inflation which is the cruelest tax of all.

Mattapoisett is a very special place but the spending of public money didn't have anything to do with it. It was just as special before the party in power in this state jumped the paper value of every home to over one hundred thousand dollars in order to increase the take. It is special because of natural beauty and a mix of people which will not last if great care is not taken to keep the tax rate under a firm control. As firm a control as can be managed, that is. No matter how many times 2½ is threatened, real estate valuation will continue to be boosted.

Any illusion that someone else picks up the tab is gone with the Democrats' pushing of the 15% State income tax hike. The rich do not pay the bill.

The fact is that government is creating the inflation which causes government to need unlimited new taxes.

No government, in the history of the world, has ever limited itself. If the people don't have the courage to do it they are riding a runaway horse.

All American Comedy

An evening full of laughs and ALL AMERICAN COMEDY featuring members of the cast of THE COSBY SHOW, A DIFFERENT WORLD and HEAD OF THE CLASS will take place at Old Rochester Regional High School July 14th and 15th at 7:30 p.m. and Sunday, July 16th, at 2:00 p.m. These performances are a benefit for the Marion Art Center. Proceeds will be used mainly for scholarships, and a contribution will be made to ORR's theater renovation project.

Featured performers are Tempest Bledsoe, Sabrina LeBeauf, Geoffrey Owens, John Marcus and Carmen Finestra of The Cosby Show; Daryl Bell and Daryl Echoes from A Different World and Saturday Night Live; Dan Fisheman from Head of the Class; Plus James Bledsoe, Tempest's brother; Darlene Bel Grayson and Michael Strauss, actors from various TV shows and movies.

Tony Singletary, Geoffrey Owens and Dan Fisheman will direct the three comedy pieces. Some local talent may also be used. Mr. Singletary, a summer resident of Wareham, is director of the Cosby Show.

MUSEUM EXHIBIT

A most interesting exhibit of woodworking tools, pictures and illustrations of shipbuilding as it was done a century or more ago is on display this month.

Whaling and merchant ships built in Mattapoisett were well-known throughout the world. Painstakingly crafted without the aid of computers for their specifications the shipbuilders of the past were artisans.

Many of the articles on display were owned and used by Enoch Winslow, a boat builder in Mattapoisett from 1920 to the late 1960s. Some of his bass boats are still in service in our local waters. His shop was in the building at the corner of Barstow and Church Streets.

The Museum at the corner of Church and Baptist Streets is open Tuesday through Saturday from 1:00 to 4:30 p.m. Along with the shipbuilding exhibit are many other reminders of days past.....something of interest for all ages.

NOW AVAILABLE...

Growth Management/Land Use

At its meeting on Wednesday, June 28th, the Mattapoisett Planning Board commenced Phase 3 of its program to prepare a Growth Management and Land Use Plan for the Town. Phase 3 will be completed when the Board adopts and prints a planning document including a Growth Management and Land Use Policy Chart and a Land Use Map.

The board's Planning consultant Burk Ketcham and Associates presented a first draft of the Policy Planning Chart on Wednesday evening. Although the draft was favorably received by the Board, minor changes and modifications will be made before the draft is distributed to other boards and committees and made available for public comment.

William Matthews, Chairman of the Planning Board, observed that, "The plan proposed by Burk Ketcham reflects the comments received from 65 interested residents who attended the Planning Board's workshop at the Old Rochester Regional Junior High School on June 14th. Participants were divided into eight working groups to comment on the three Alternative Concept Plans which had been developed during Phase 2. For the most part there was a consensus on many of the major recommendations."

Mr. Matthews also noted, "The workshop participants generally favored the following: site plan review for non-residential development; stricter regulations governing seasonal home conversions; the adoption of a cluster zoning option for single family homes; a new mixed-use business, light industry and office district in conjunction with a proposed roadway from I-195/Industrial Drive to Route 6; the creation of a special overlay zoning district to protect the Mattapoisett River Aquifer-Mattapoisett's only source of potable water; the development of a bikeway along the old railroad right-of-way; the provision of additional classroom space to meet growing elementary school enrollments; and the development of a new playground area to the north of I-195."

At Wednesday's meeting consultant Burk Ketcham stressed, "We are trying to develop a plan which reflects community concerns to retain the Town's single family character and protect its natural inland and coastal resources, yet at the same time addresses the need for a stronger tax base to help cover ever increasing municipal costs. Currently, industry pays only one half of one per cent of local taxes, and business contribute another four percent. The balance is paid by taxes on residences and vacant land. Seasonal housing traditionally represented a strong element of Mattapoisett's tax base. The continuing conversion of many of these seasonal homes to year-round occupancy represents an erosion of the tax base."

The Planning Board continues to express interest in hearing the comments and suggestions of all interested residents and property owners.

Award for Teaching Excellence

RECEIVES STATE AWARD-MATH TEACHING

Mr. Dwayne Cameron, Mathematics Coordinator for the Old Rochester Regional School District, has been selected as a State awardee of the Presidential Award for Excellence in Mathematics Teaching.

Six of the finest science and mathematics teachers from each state and from four jurisdictions have been singled out for recognition in the first phase of the 1989 Presidential Awards of Excellence in Science and Mathematics Teaching program.

Sponsored by the National Science Foundation and managed by the National Science Teachers' Association, the Presidential Awards program identifies and honors three science and three mathematics teachers in each state and in the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the Department of Defense Dependents Schools, and a Ceremonies honoring the state awardees will be held during the next month. They will each receive a Certificate of Honor from the National Science Foundation and be recognized for their extraordinary abilities to improve students' understanding of science or mathematics, for having a thorough grasp of their subject area, and for demonstrating educational goals which help them maintain positions of professional leadership.

This year's state level awardees are now candidates for the prestigious Presidential Awards to be conferred this October in Washington, D.C. State selection procedures are managed by the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics and the State Science Supervisors. The selection of two Presidential Awardees, one science and one mathematics teacher from each state and jurisdiction, will be the responsibility of a blue-ribbon national committee which meets in Washington, D.C. this month. The announcement of the Presidential Awards by the White House is expected in mid-September.

as though someone wants to move Marion away from its traditional live and let live tolerance to one of lock-step regimentation. Man's best friend is being singled out and an iron curtain is proposed from the Old Landing to Cove Street behind which the faithful friend of man though innocent of any offense would be in chains.

The truth is that the dogs of Marion, if left free to roam in their own territory, are probably one of the town's greatest safety assets to deter the crimes of larceny, the threat of vandalism and the abhorent molestation of children all of which are of real citizen concern for taxpayers and parents in Marion. As evidence of the situation the latest town report listed 101 cases of larceny, 117 cases of vandalism, but far less than one percent of all the police reported residents were for animal complaints which proves where the emphasis should be, on criminals - not on the dogs who protect us.

Restriction of dogs by limiting their effectiveness to the length of a chain invites invasion by those who prey on unattended property or children. If perchance some dog commits a nuisance there is already a procedure to have it restrained by the signatures of ten residents. Restraint should be only on a case by case basis and the chaining of all dogs irrespective of the circumstances would be an unnecessary and cruel regulation for both the dogs and their owners.

One might well ask what is the mental outlook of those in or out of government who would impose a harsh concept of living with man's best friend. Are they themselves chained to an unhappy life of intolerance. Neither man nor dog belong in chains unless they are threats to others. Freedom should not be denied without just cause. General Francis Marion for whom the town is named fought for that freedom and the citizens of Marion should not let it slip lightly through their fingers by unnecessary regimentation and arbitrary edicts for either man or dog.

Vacation Bible School

"Celebrate God's Love" is the theme of Vacation Bible School at the Long Plain United Methodist Church in Acushnet. The school will be held for one week beginning on August 21st from 9 to 12 noon each day, at the church, which is at 1215 Main Street, Acushnet. Children between the ages of three and sixth grade are invited to attend.

Students will participate in Bible stories, arts and crafts activities, music, recreation, and worship, all centered on five themes: "God So Loved the World", "The Earth is the Lord's", "Love One Another", "Do Everything in the Name of the Lord Jesus", and "Go Therefore and Make Disciples of All Nations". The special mission emphasis will be on Heifer Project International, which provides young ani-

SAFETY PRECAUTIONS FOR CHARCOAL AND PROPANE GRILLS

CHARCOAL GRILLS:

1. Use grills and hibachis only in well ventilated outdoor areas.
2. Use only approved charcoal lighter fluids, never gasoline or kerosene.
3. Stand up wind of the grill before the fire.
4. Keep the container of lighter fluid and other combustible materials away from the grill.
5. Do not wear loose, flowing clothing that could blow against the fire.
6. Keep children away from the cooking area.
7. Be certain coals are extinguished before you dump the ashes.

PROPANE GRILLS:

1. Use only outdoors in well ventilated areas.
2. Always open the grill cover before you light it to allow any residual gas to vent.
3. Be ready to light the grill without delay after you open or turn on the gas valves.
4. After cooking shut off the valve propane bottle and let the gas in the lines burn out or vent before you store the grill.

taking prescription or over-the-counter drugs. If you experience a sudden rise in body temperature, muscle contraction, or rapid breathing, consult your physician immediately.

Ways to avoid heat exhaustion:

Find a cool spot (at home, air conditioned shopping mall, senior center, library or movie).

Draw cool air into your home with a fan. Air movement reduces heat stress by helping to remove excess body heat.

Take a cool bath or shower.

Drink plenty of fluids but avoid alcohol drinks.

Wear light clothes, made of natural fibers (cotton, linen) which breathe more easily. Also light colors reflect heat away from the body (dark colors absorb heat).

Wear a hat or use an umbrella to protect your head and neck outdoors.

Slow down. Physical activity produces body heat.

Heed the early warning signs of heat stress: general discomfort, lack of energy, or loss of appetite.

Enjoy your summer in spite of the heat.

UNDERWATER ARCHAEOLOGY

"Adventures in Underwater Archaeology" is Barry Clifford's topic for a slide talk to be given at 8:00 p.m. Thursday, July 13th, at the Bell Schoolhouse, 25 Drift Road, Head of Westport. Mr. Clifford has had a life-long interest in researching shipwrecks and in underwater diving. He has continually been involved in various diving-related activities since 1970, and has located and salvaged a number of submerged shipwrecks; the most notable of which was his 1984 discovery of the WHYDAH, the only known pirate shipwreck ever found.

Aside from the ongoing archaeological excavation of the WHYDAH, Mr. Clifford and his company, Maritime Explorations, Inc., are currently searching for the

Old Fiddlers' Club Concert

The Old Fiddlers' Club of Rhode Island will appear in concert from 8:00 to 11:00 p.m. Friday, July 21st, at the Bell Schoolhouse, 25 Drift Road, Head of Westport. Between 20 and 30 club members will play old-time fiddle tunes such as "Haste to the Wedding", "Chinese Breakdown" and many others.

Founded in 1929 and continuing activity since, with the exception of the World War II era, the Old Fiddlers' Club of Rhode Island is the oldest such organization in the country. It was started by a handful of fiddlers with the purpose of keeping old-fashioned music alive in this area. Members gathered in kitchens or empty barns to play dance music of bygone days. Over the years, groups from the 70 or so membership of all ages have performed at granges, fairs, anniversaries, and parties.

This program is funded in part by a grant from the Westport Arts Lottery Council. Tickets are $3.50 for members of the Westport Historical Society, $4.50 for non-members and $2.50 for children under 12. Mail orders may be sent to: Westport Historical Society, P.O. Box 3031, Westport, MA. 02790. Phone orders will also be received at 636-6011. Phone reservations will be honored until 7:45 p.m. the evening of the show.

Butterfly Census

On July 16th Mark Mello, Research Co-ordinator at the Lloyd Center for Environmental Studies, will be leading a tour of butterfly enthusiasts on an all-day excursion through several different habitats as part of the 15th Annual Butterfly Count. The count is sponsored by the Xerces Society, a butterfly conservation society.

Each year a fixed itinerary is walked and all the butterflies which are encountered are identified and their numbers recorded, much like the Audubon Society's Christmas Bird Count. Volunteers are sought who would be willing to join us for a full or half-day. The ability to identify this area's 75 or more species is not necessary, but some familiarity with butterflies or the ability to discern between the more common species (even if you can't put a name on them) would be very helpful. This is an excellent opportunity for those who would like to know the names and habits of our more common species.

Participants will meet at the Lloyd Center for Environmental studies at 9:00 a.m. where carpooling to the various sites will be arranged. Necessary equipment will be supplied, but participants should bring a hat with a visor, long pants, water, and their favorite mosquito repellent.

Mariner Youth Soccer

LOCAL GIRLS SOCCER TEAM IN STATE TOURNAMENT

The Mattapoisett-based Mariner Youth Soccer Club has made history as it qualified one of their girls' teams for state tournament play for the first time on Sunday. The Mariner side, coached by Jim Soden of Marion, and Wayne McSwiggin of Mattapoisett, defeated Dartmouth 9-0 at S.M.U. to win the South Coast Shore League Under 12 girls' championship with a 6-2-1 record. The team, nicknamed the "Killer Whales", is comprised of girls from Mattapoisett, Fairhaven, and New Bedford. Another Mariner squad, representing the towns of Marion and Rochester and coached by Steve Alexander of Marion and Cathy Roberts of Rochester, finished in second place in the four-team league with a 5-3-1 mark. The Killer Whales' only two defeats were at the hands of Alexander's team. Other teams in the circuit were from Dartmouth and Sandwich.

Molly Wilkins and Tara Best, both of Mattapoisett, played major roles in the Killer Whales' success this season as they alternated at the sweeper and center forward positions. Both are fifth graders at Old Hammondtown School. Hanna Haines of Fairhaven and Raygan Galvam of New Bedford also played key roles at the forward position. Strong midfield support was provided throughout the season by Cari Hergenhan of Fairhaven and Stephanie Wood of Mattapoisett. Jillian Cunha of Fairhaven's Rogers School excelled in goal.

"Many of the girls who won today have been playing since first grade, and they's truly enjoyed it", said Jim Soden, coach of the winning team. "This experience and the increased level of competition that area clubs can now offer have made girls' soccer a sport whose time has come," he added. While admitting that Mariner is at a disadvantage competitively because girls' soccer is relatively new to the area, Soden remained optimistic for the future. "People are beginning to realize that this sport is relatively inexpensive and that the skills are easily picked up. We cannot now compete against towns where programs exist from first grade through high school, but we are fast approaching that time. I hope that the players on this under-12 team will be the stars of their local high schools' first girls' soccer teams in the near future. They have certainly earned that opportunity."

MARTHA'S VINEYARD
YOUR ISLAND NEXT DOOR

The unspoiled charm and proximity of Martha's Vineyard Island make it a favorite getaway. No matter how long your visit, the Island has much to offer anyone looking for a quiet retreat or a fun-filled time. Part of the fun of visiting the Island is sailing aboard the Ferry Schamonchi. Since it departs from historic New Bedford, the Schamonchi offers the convenience of avoiding Cape Cod traffic. You'll sail in comfort during the 1½ hour cruise - roaming three decks or eating at the snack and cocktail bars.

DIRECTIONS

From Route I 195 take Downtown Exit 15 (Route 18 South). Continue on Route 18 to third set of lights, turn left and follow signs to our dock and overnight parking lot across the street from the Schamonchi Dock and Billy Woods Wharf. Limited Shuttle Bus Service available to the Elm Street garage.
